

CHICKS who CLICK

relax...refine...refresh

It's back and better than ever!

Join us in beautiful Scottsdale, Arizona and the fabulous Firesky Resort and Spa, a Kimpton property. There will be incredible programs, live demonstrations, plenty of "girlfriend" time, shopping, spa, swimming pool or whatever your body and mind needs with a $99 room rate!

Programs kick off at 7 pm on Thursday and are over by noon on Sunday. Go to www.ppacharities.com for the complete schedule and program descriptions. There you can register, see our sponsors and special events and even make your hotel reservations.

The conference fee of $299 for PPA members or $329 for all others includes daily breakfast, the Saturday Celebration Dinner, a Welcome Reception and Girls Night Out in Scottsdale.

And yes, you men are always welcome!

*Here's what industry leaders have to say about "Chicks Who Click" . . .
I have attended every Chick's Conference since its inception, and I can honestly say that it is by far the single most powerful and enjoyable conference that exists today. When you are given an opportunity to educate, exfoliate and celebrate, you just shouldn't pass it up!*

— Sandy Puc', M.Photog.Cr., CPP,ABI — Littleton, Colorado

Chicks Who Click is the only conference I've attended where I honestly understood every word spoken. It was the language of our mothers, our sisters, our friends . . . This event is a very special group, a very caring environment to learn, trust and grow.

— Carol Andrews Jensen, M.Photog.Cr., CPP,ABI — Houston, Texas

What Chicks confirmed for me is that women really do approach the business of photography much differently from men. Women (and men) who attend, find this conference to be a revelation and a virtual turning point in their lives.

— Ann Monteith, M.Photog.Cr., CPP,ABI,API — Annville, Pennsylvania
